

Style Profile

Written by Grace Boateng
Wednesday, 20 March 2013 00:00

Untitled document

Whether she is walking the streets of New York filming her reality series or on the red carpet, entrepreneur, actress, radio & television personality Alani “LaLa” Anthony is always stylish. Below are a few of my favorite “Lala” looks.

Style Profile

Written by Grace Boateng

Wednesday, 20 March 2013 00:00

The first look that I absolutely love is a sundress that Lala recently wore. The silky dress has a trendy chain print, empire waist, and skinny shoulder straps. She finished off the look with nude pumps. The best part about this look is how affordable it is. This $35 Kardashian Kollektion Chain Print Faux Wrap Sundress can easily be found online and in stores.

The second look I featured is a cobalt blue lace dress made by Lover. This dress features cap sleeves, a high neckline with a built in nude slip. The asymmetrical cut and cobalt blue Manolo Blahnik Suede BB Pumps she paired the dress with really made this ensemble a knockout.

Last but not least Lala celebrated the launch of her "Motives for Lala" makeup line wearing Helmut Lang dress. She added a purple belt and sandals to this black asymmetric stretch jersey dress. Personally I would have found another shoe to really set the look off. Even though the shoes don't match they are still fly.

Until next time....Grace