

Fashion Review with Grace Boateng - Do we love it?

Written by Grace Boateng
Wednesday, 17 April 2013 00:00

Untitled document

WNBA Draft

Houston's own Britney Griner was selected as the No. 1 pick in the WNBA draft and will be heading to the Phoenix Mercury. Kellen Richards, a stylist Elle for the n DeGeneres Show designed the white suit that Britney came to the draft dressed in. Griner told USA Today "I really like that tomboyish look." This look was a departure from what we typically see Britney wearing. This time she went all out as she prepared to receive top honors even getting a Phoenix Mercury Orange manicure. I think this is a great look for Britney and hope to see her in Tom Ford or Giorgio Armani soon.

2013 MTV Movie Awards

Fashion Review with Grace Boateng - Do we love it?

Written by Grace Boateng

Wednesday, 17 April 2013 00:00

Zoe Saldana wore a Givenchy dress that features a sheer black polka-dot lace skirt with floral embroidery. She paired it with a black long-sleeved top and my Choo 'Kalpa' heels. Her jewelry from Emily Faith and Graziela completed her look. Jim Kerry Washington wore a dress from the Michael Kors Fall 2013 Collection. The unique design features a solid black long-sleeved short dress with a bold neon-orange flowing train. Kerry paired this with dress with black pump and an orange clutch.

I was pleasantly surprised with both ladies choices as the MTV Awards is usually a parade of how little you can get away with wearing (or not wearing). Question is...do we love it?