

Good-bye, FTP – Hello, Box

Written by Jacqueline Lawson, Digital Media Director
Friday, 09 November 2012 12:07

Untitled document

Box Business and Box Enterprise put an end to the FTP productivity drain while enhancing your professional image. Easily upload content, organize it into folders, share links to files and manage file/folder permissions. Learn More.

Keep Content Organized Box makes it easy to upload and organize all your files – documents, spreadsheets, presentations, images, audio and video files, you name it – in just a few clicks.

Share Files Quickly and Easily With Box, you share content with your team – and external partners and vendors – just by sending a link. Manage Content Access With Box, you define who can access and edit specific files and folders. You also get the reassurance of password-protecting shared links.

The Free Version Lets you:

File share links

Has a Mobile app

Secure transfer

Good-bye, FTP – Hello, Box

Written by Jacqueline Lawson, Digital Media Director
Friday, 09 November 2012 12:07

Secure storage

Access notifications

Edit documents in the cloud

Get Mobilized: Access Content from Any Device – iPad, iPhone and More

On the run? Run to Box – where your office is wherever you are. Box Business and Box Enterprise let you connect with your content anywhere, on any device.

Document Management: Now, Keep All Your Files in One Place

What if all your content could live in one place online? Box Business and Box Enterprise not only let you store files in a single location, it's a snap to organize and share all your documents and media.