The numbers are in, and based on the results, audiences love drama.

The finale episode of ‘Love & Hip Hop: Atlanta,’ featuring love triangles and relationship issues with K. Michelle, Stevie J, Joseline, Mimi, Lil Scrappy, Erica Dixon, and Buckey attracted over six million viewers, making it the highest rated episode in the series history.

The strong viewership is driving the return of a second season of “Love & Hip Hop: Atlanta,” in addition to a third season of “Love & Hip Hop: New York.”

In the height of the television series success, a lawsuit was filed by K. Michelle’s alleged abuser, Mickey “Memphitz” Wright, for slandering his character.
