Once again network television produced only a handful of successful let alone, quality television shows of which few has “breakthrough-crossover” potential. “Victory” a.k.a. “Champion” is hit programming for every audience. Networks go out beating the bushes for new programs. Houston is ready to bring one to their doorsteps.

Writer-Director-producer Lawrence V. Williams is confident “Victory” a.k.a. “Champion” is the right TV drama at the right time and will make important artistic and social impact on audiences and he thinks it is well past time for another TV series with Houston as its home base. “Victory is truly an idea whose time has come.

“V” is the character’s nickname, short for “Victory” will be playing the “Ultimate High Stakes Game: The life and death of Planet Earth is on the line and “V” is the Pied Piper of Planet Whisperers drafted by the Creator to do an “intervention” to save and repair the planet and humankind.

Planet Earth compared to the rest of the constellations’ historic storyline can be summed up in the few lyrics of a Louis Armstrong song about human beings. “What A Wonderful World”: the line, the lyrics expressed “I see babies crying/I watch them grow/they’ll learn so much than we’ll ever know/what a wonderful world”. That’s exactly the way life plays out, even for planets.... With the exception of Planet Earth has failed the “Evolution Test” and about to fail the “Survival Test”. “V’s” job is to help human beings make intelligent choices on the problems they are facing.

Many folks can name a book that changed their lives, “Victory” a.k.a. “Champion” is a TV drama series capable of changing a planet, “V”, is a series that could open the minds and
